

WEST BASKETBALL FACTS & FIGURES

- Pocono Mountain West High School opened in September of 2002 after the original Pocono Mountain High School split into 2 schools
- Record through 15 seasons: 300-91 (.767 win percentage)
- 20+ wins in 10 of the last 11 seasons
- 20+ wins in 12 out of last 15 seasons
- Winningest big school program (4A/6A) in District XI from 2002-2017
- Most championships in Mountain Valley Conference history - 2005, 2007, 2008, 2011, 2012, 2013, & 2014
- Winningest program in the MVC from 2002-2014
- 123-21 all-time in MVC regular season play
- 99-8 in MVC play (including playoffs) from 2006-2014 season
- Won a record 29 straight MVC games from 2007-2009
- Went undefeated in MVC play in 2007, 2008, & 2013
- 4-peated as MVC champions (2011, 2012, 2013, 2014)
- 2012 team was the first in Pocono Mountain School District history to win a District XI championship
- Voted The Morning Call area's 2012 "Team of the Year"
- 2012 team was the first team from Monroe County since 1999 to win a District XI championship
- 2012 team was the first in District XI class '4A' since 2006 (William Allen) to win both a league and district championship in same season
- In 2014-15 the Panthers joined the Eastern Pennsylvania Conference. An 18-team super conference compiled of the Mountain Valley Conference and the Lehigh Valley Conference made up of three 6-team divisions – Mountain, Skyline, Steel
- 2016 EPC Mountain Division Champions
- 2017 EPC Mountain Division Champions (undefeated in division play)

WEST BASKETBALL FACTS & FIGURES

- 2017 District XI 6A champions (1st ever in the new big school classification)
- 2017 team finished ranked #7 in the state
- 2017 team finished ranked #1 on WNEP's Super 16
- 2017 team finished ranked the #1 team in The Morning Call Area Top 10
- 2008 & 2017 teams both reached the PIAA State Tournament Sweet 16
- All-time home record: 144-22
- 3 undefeated seasons at home
- 7 one-loss seasons at home
- 3 Associated Press All-State selections - Jalen Vaughns (2nd Team-'17), Quindell Brice (3rd Team-'12), Tynell Fortune (3rd Team-'11)
- 6 MVC Most Valuable Players - Jovan Smalls ('03), Jon Mangual ('07 & '08), Tynell Fortune ('11), Quindell Brice ('12), Eric Vick ('13), Joe Wiggins ('14)
- 42 all-league players in 15 seasons